Bromley Canoe Club

Child and Vulnerable Adults Protection Policy

Statement of commitment

Bromley Canoe Club is fully committed to safeguarding the well being of all its members. All members should show respect and understanding for the rights, safety and welfare of others and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of the club.

Code of practice

We believe that taking part in canoeing should be a positive and enjoyable part of children's/vulnerable adults lives and to achieve this we have the following aims:

- Club coaches should read and consider the guidance given in the BCU Coaches and Officials Code of Conduct ^{Appendix 1}.
- All Club coaches and members working with young people should read and consider the guidance given in the BCU Child Protection Policy and Procedures ^{Appendix 2}.
- The Club will follow the guidance of the BCU Child Protection Policy and Procedures in the event of any concerns or allegations ^{Appendix 2}.
- The Club will ensure that anyone regularly working with young people undertake a screening procedure. This will take the form of a Criminal Records Bureau disclosure.
- The Club will ensure that all members are made aware of the Club Code of Conduct.
- The Clubs Guidelines for Young People on Trips should be followed whenever young people undertake canoeing activities outside. ^{Appendix 3}
- The Club will endeavour to obtain written medical details of child/vulnerable adult paddlers. This information will be made known to any Coaches working with the paddlers concerned.
- The Club will promote the use of BCU qualified Coaches or members having adequate experience on all trips or coaching sessions.
- The Club will encourage and support members to gain qualifications and assist Coaches to stay up-dated.
- The Committee will identify a Welfare Officer whose role is to deal with any issues concerning child protection and vulnerable adults and notify this person to all members.
- Anyone with concerns with respect to children or vulnerable adults should contact the Welfare Officer. If that person is unavailable then they should contact one of the elected officers of the Club. In the unlikely event that they should also be unavailable then they should contact the BCU Child Protection Officer ^{Appendix 4}.
- The Club intends to adopt the BCU's Health and Safety Policy.
- The Club will review this policy annually and any changes will be formalised through a motion at the Club AGM.

BCU Coaches and Officials Code of Conduct

Whilst it is important for all adults to understand their responsibility with children, the BCU is concerned that specific advice is given concerning the behaviour of all coaches, staff, volunteers and other officials. In addition, those who employ coaches for example, should know what standard of behaviour is acceptable.

This applies to anyone working in either a paid employed role or as a volunteer.

1. Coaches & Officials must respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person and treat everyone equally within the context of their sport.
2. Coaches & Officials must place the well being and safety of the child above the development of performance. They should follow all guidelines laid down by the BCU and hold appropriate insurance cover
3. Coaches & Officials must develop an appropriate working relationship with participants, especially children, based on mutual trust and respect. Coaches must not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward.
4. Coaches & Officials must encourage and guide participants to accept responsibility for their own behaviour.
5. Coaches & Officials should hold up to date nationally recognised BCU coaching qualifications.
6. Coaches & Officials must ensure the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual.
7. Coaches & Officials should at the outset clarify with participants, and where appropriate their parents, exactly what is expected of them and what participants are entitled to expect from the coach.
8. Coaches & Officials should cooperate fully with other specialists e.g. other coaches, officials, sports scientists, doctors, and physiotherapists in the best interests of the participants.
9. Coaches & Officials should always promote the positive aspects of their sport e.g. fair play and never condone rule violations or the use of prohibited substances.
10. Coaches & Officials should not be under the influence of drink, drugs or any substance.
11. Coaches & Officials must consistently display high standards of behaviour and appearance
12. Coaches & Officials should be acutely aware of the power that a coach develops with players and avoid any intimacy (sexual or otherwise).
13. Coaches & Officials should be acutely aware of situations with players that could be construed as compromising and actions that others could perceive as being outside the coaching role.
14. Coaches & Officials should report any concerns within the area of Child Protection/Vulnerable Adults in confidence and without delay to the appropriate person.
15. Coaches & Officials should at no time make comment to the media. The BCU Press Officer should be made aware of any media interest in relation to Child Protection/Vulnerable Adults.

In the event of an allegation of improper behaviour being made, the personal conduct and professional behaviour of the adult will be very important evidence. For child abuse to take place, particularly sexual abuse, the child and adult(s) will generally be alone and away from public view. Thus the best practice is to avoid all situations in which behaviour cannot be observed.

Child Protection is about putting in place the best possible practices and procedures, this will protect not only the child but also you, the adult. If you have any comments on this guideline or require any further support or guidance relating to children and young persons please contact the BCU Welfare Officer.

Child Protection Policy and Procedures

January 2007

BCU Child and Vulnerable Adults Protection Policy

BCU Duty of Care

The policies and guidelines referenced within this document and its various appendices are those of the British Canoe Union and its affiliated member countries. The principles of both the policy and the appendices are based on our moral and ethical duty to ensure children and vulnerable adults can enjoy canoeing in a safe environment and as such they reflect current best practice.

Legal variation and social policy may require national association bodies to establish caveats to and separate guidelines to take account of home nation government, law and social work practices.

Introduction

The BCU wishes to ensure that all those taking part in canoeing are able to do so protected and kept safe from harm while they are with staff, coaches and / or volunteers. This is particularly true in respect of children and vulnerable adults.

With this in mind the BCU recognises that they have a duty towards all those taking part in paddlesport activity and to any club providing paddling opportunities ensuring that support is provided to ensure all can do so with the highest possible standards of care.

All coaches and clubs should have a clear understanding of operating within an appropriate code of ethics, aware of what their 'duty of care' is and how this relates to their position in providing activities and being responsible for others.

As the organisers of activity, there is a possibility of someone being harmed. In a small percentage of cases action may be taken against you if the person decides to make a claim. This action may result in financial losses but can also harm your reputation or the reputation of your club and the BCU itself.

A good definition of 'duty of care' is:

"The duty which rests upon an individual or organisation to ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to ensure the safety of any person involved in any activity for which that individual or organisation is responsible"

In an activity such as canoeing, safety and keeping people safe is all about risk assessment and minimising the risks involved at all levels of participation. While all taking part in activity have a duty to their neighbours, in organised activity we all have a heightened duty of care and as such we should be aware that the principal risks extend to the quality of control exercised by those in charge. Trainers, coaches, referees, umpires or administrators should all take 'reasonable' steps to safeguard those directly taking part in activities and at any time they may be deemed responsible for those in their charge - in vehicles, during journey's to and from the activity, during events, team training events and camps etc.

The content of this document provides specific information in respect of Child Protection and the protection of vulnerable adults in order that coaches and clubs can appreciate their 'duty of care' with regard to these issues, risk assess their positions and support and advise those at risk.

Paddlesafe with the BCU, the guidelines presented on the final pages of this document provide clubs and centres with ideas and recommendations to assist them in implementing specific procedures and safeguards to protect young and vulnerable paddlers. Further to this document you may wish to consult the following additional information.

- BCU Coaching Directory
- BCU Coaches & Officials Code of Conduct
- BCU Duty of Care policy
- BCU Articles of Association and Disciplinary Procedure
- BCU Supervision of Away Trips
- BCU Canoe and Kayak handbook

The BCU acknowledges Celia Brackenridge, Joy Bringer, WT Associates, Cheltenham and Gloucester University, Sports Coach UK, the NSPCC, the ASA, and others for origination of material within this document.

Vulnerable Adult

“A person who is, or may be, in need of community care services by reason of mental or other disability, age or illness and who is or may be unable to take care of him or herself, or unable to protect him or herself against significant harm or exploitation”

Paddlesafe with the BCU

In the BCU we believe that the welfare of children/vulnerable adult is everyone's responsibility, particularly when it comes to protecting children/vulnerable adult from abuse. Everyone in paddlesport can help - administrator, club official, coach, parent, friend and children themselves.

Abuse can occur wherever there are children/vulnerable adult - at home, at school, in the park, at the club. Sadly, there are some people who will seek to be where children/vulnerable adult are simply in order to abuse them. We believe that everyone in the BCU has a moral responsibility and therefore a part to play in looking after the children and vulnerable adults with whom we are working. The Children Act 1989 indicates that anyone who has responsibility for the care of children should “do what is reasonable in all circumstances for the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the child's welfare.”

While the welfare of young people is the BCU's first consideration in establishing a child protection programme it is also seen that the interests of coaches themselves need to be taken account of, particularly where falsely accused. A feature of the BCU's policy on Child Protection is to ensure that we provide coaches with access to a confidential advice, guidance and support path, provided separately to that provided for those with concerns that abuse may be taking place.

These child protection procedures stem from the following principles:

- the child's welfare is paramount
- anyone under the age of 18 is classed as a child
- all children, regardless of age, any disability they have, gender, racial origin, religious belief and sexual identity have a right to be protected from abuse.
- Coaches, clubs and centres need to be provided with advice to raise awareness of best practice and guidance and support should they become involved in an abuse situation.

We know that if the procedures are to help to protect children, everyone involved in paddlesport needs to see and discuss them. We are, therefore, asking club secretaries/officers to make sure that they are widely distributed and discussed at club executive and general meetings.

Good Practice Guidelines

By following these guidelines you will help to protect both the children/vulnerable adult in our sport and our coaches/helpers from wrongful allegations.

Avoid situations where you are alone with one child/vulnerable adult. The BCU acknowledges that occasionally there may be no alternative, for example, where a child/vulnerable adult falls ill and has to be taken home. We would stress, however, that one to one contact must never be allowed to occur on a regular basis.

- If any form of physical support is required ask the paddler's permission, explain what you are doing and why to both the child/vulnerable adult and their parents/carers.
- Where possible ask parents/carers to be responsible for children/vulnerable adults in changing rooms. Always ensure that whoever supervises young people work in pairs.
- Where there are mixed teams/groups away from home, they should always be accompanied by an adult male and female coach/helper.
- Don't allow physically rough or sexually provocative games, or inappropriate talking or touching.
- If it's necessary to do things of a personal nature for children/vulnerable adult, make sure you have another adult accompanying you. Get the consent of the parent/carer and if possible the child/vulnerable adult. Let them know what you are doing and why.
- Ensure that any claims of abuse by a child/vulnerable adult are taken seriously and that it is dealt with by people who know what to do.
- Ensure that the nature and intensity of training does not exceed the capacity of a child's/vulnerable adult immature growing body and ability.
- Follow the BCU guidelines for photography and video use (see reference sheet 'Guidelines for use of Photographic and Filming Equipment')

Ensure your club adheres to the BCU best practice guidelines with particular reference to:

- The BCU Coaches & Officials Code of Conduct
- This guidance on child protection and the Paddlesafe Guidelines provided.
- The requirements for coaches and helpers to have undergone CRB disclosure.(see CRB FAQ)
- Club Child Protection & Vulnerable Adults Policy along with the identified Club Welfare Officers details.

What is Abuse?

It's generally acknowledged that there are four main types of abuse -Physical, Sexual, Emotional and Neglect, listed below is a very general outline for each type of abuse.

Physical Abuse

Physical abuse is just what the term implies - hurting or injuring a child/vulnerable adult eg by hitting, shaking, squeezing, burning or biting them. In Sport this might result if the nature or intensity of training is inappropriate for the capacity of the performer or where drugs are tolerated or advocated.

Sexual Abuse

Where young people/vulnerable adults are used by adults to meet their own sexual needs. It could range from sexually suggestive comments to full intercourse and includes the use of pornographic material.

Emotional Abuse

Emotional abuse occurs when a child/vulnerable adult is not given love, help and encouragement and is constantly derided or ridiculed eg racial or sexual remarks. It can also occur if a child/vulnerable adult is overprotected. Abuse can occur where a parent or coach has unrealistic expectations over what a child/vulnerable adult can achieve.

Neglect

Failing to meet children's/vulnerable adults basic needs such as food, warmth, adequate clothing, medical attention or constantly leaving them alone. It could also mean failing to ensure they are safe or exposing them to harm or injury.

Bullying

The bully in Paddlesport can also be an adult - the parent/carer who pushes too hard, the coach who adopts a win-at-all-costs philosophy or adult paddlers who attempt to assert unacceptable behaviour on younger paddlers to make them unwelcome or prevent them using club equipment. Bullying can also occur between young people.

What if you accidentally hurt a child?

You should report such incident immediately to another Club Coach/official and make a brief written note of it. You should also inform the child's parents/carers, preferably in person.

Is touching OK?

If a coaching technique would benefit from physical contact or support then first ask the paddler's permission (eg would you mind if I held your shoulders to show you what I mean?) You should also explain why and how this is used to the paddler and their parent/carer.

If you have concerns about the welfare of a child/vulnerable adult

Please remember the 'Golden Rule', it is not your responsibility to decide whether a child/vulnerable adult is being abused but it is your responsibility to pass the information on to the appropriate person. Make a detailed note of what you've seen or heard but don't delay passing on the information.

If you are a member, or the parent/carer or friend of a member of a canoe club you should:

- Tell the appointed child protection/welfare club officer, if your club has one, or alternatively the secretary, chairperson, coach or any committee member, or at an event possibly an event organiser - unless, of course you suspect them of being involved.- (See BCU club guidelines for club/centre recommendations for implementing a child protection policy)
- Police or Social Services (You may decide to do this first, if this is the case you must also tell the BCU Child Protection Lead Officer)
- Contact the BCU Child Protection Lead Officer or BCU appointed Child Protection Officer (contact via BCU Office Nottingham)
- If you need urgent advice contact the NSPCC Child Protection 24 hour HelpLine. 0808 800 5000

If you are a club officer or event organiser you can:

- Talk to the child's parents/carers about the concerns if you think there may be an obvious explanation such as a bereavement or pressure from their studies/exams.
- If you need urgent advice contact the NSPCC Child Protection 24 hour HelpLine. Contact your local Social Services Department or, in an emergency, the Police.
- If you are working with paddlers away from home, at a training camp, perhaps, or a national/regional competition - tell the team manager or the chief coach.
- If you are working with a school - inform the head teacher.
- If you are involved in a paddle scheme such as local authority paddle lessons, refer to their Child Protection procedures.

NB Even if reporting your concerns to club appointed persons or club officials or the NSPCC, police or social services you are also required to contact the BCU Child Protection Officer to advise them of your concern and to whom you have reported it.

The BCU Child Protection and Lead Officer, British Canoe Union Coaching Service, Adbolton Lane, West Bridgford, Nottingham, NG2 5AS

If a child/vulnerable adult tells you that he or she is being abused

- Stay calm.
- Don't promise to keep it to yourself.
- Listen to what the child/vulnerable adult says and, please, take it seriously.
- Only ask questions if you need to identify what the child/vulnerable adult is telling you - don't ask the child/vulnerable adult about explicit details.
 - When
 - Where
 - Who
 - What(not in detail)
- Make a detailed note of what the child/vulnerable adult has told you but, as advised in the previous section, please don't delay passing on the information.

What should you do as a coach if you have allegations made against you.

If as a coach you have had allegations made against you and you wish to discuss the matter with an impartial adviser you could contact the BCU's Coach Adviser. That person will have had no involvement with the reported concerns or incident and will be able to support and advise you as to how to represent yourself.

Guidelines for Clubs and Organisations

If you have good standards of practice within your club or organisation people are more likely to join!

We recommend that clubs/organisations review their existing policies and practices to help safeguard the welfare of children and vulnerable adults within their organisations. By taking these basic steps you will also help protect your helpers/ coaches and the club from wrongful allegations. In addition, many funding bodies such as the Lottery Sports Fund, now require you to have a child protection & vulnerable adults policy and procedures in place.

Adopt a Child & Vulnerable Adults Protection Policy

This should suit the type of organisation you are and what you provide. It can be brief - or long - the important point is that everyone is made aware of it and you establish how it will be implemented – and then implement it. It should contain a statement of your commitment to providing a safe place for children/vulnerable adults to participate in paddlesport. You should also include a code of practice and procedures for how you aim to achieve this.

The reference sheet 'Club Child & Vulnerable Adults Protection Policy' is an example of what you might say – you may wish to leave bits out or add other points you feel are important.

Recruiting and Managing Volunteers and Helpers

Having good standards of practice within your Club or organisation is likely to encourage more people to join. This includes:

- screening of helpers (see below)
- establishing clear roles
- regular checks or supervision of helpers
- information about clubs rules /operating procedures
- system for feedback and support
- support training of helpers and coaches in child protection/vulnerable adult issues

Nominate a Child Protection/Welfare Officer

No system is foolproof – it is important that we do not rely on just one system to help create a safe environment for young people

Procedures, Policies and Guidelines

Issue written procedures and have systems in place for dealing with incidents.

Codes of Conduct

Ensure all members/coaches/officials adhere to the BCU Code of Ethics and establish Codes of Conduct for Paddlers, Coaches and Helpers, Parents/Guardians.- (see reference sheet ‘Club Code of Conduct’)

Create a Safe Environment

Have you done a risk assessment?

Do you have a safety policy?

Screening Volunteers, Helpers and Staff

The BCU makes the following recommendation to clubs, centres and coaches with respect to the vetting of helpers and coaches having access to young people:

All staff working with children should be asked to undertake Criminal Record Bureau (CRB) Disclosure (see below)

All new employees/staff should be asked to undergo Disclosure at the time of job offer.

Existing employees/staff should be asked to undertake Disclosure on a phasing in basis.

Voluntary club coaches should be asked to undertake a CRB Disclosure (best practice) or as a minimum the completion of a self declaration form and the submission of references. See FAQ on CRB Disclosure and example self declaration form. Guidance available from the BCU Child Protection Officer or other appointed person.

Club helpers i.e. drivers and support staff should also be considered as requiring some form of check, again appropriate to the amount of contact with young people/vulnerable adult. See reference sheets for further guidance

Communicate all these actions to all your members.

Appointment Procedures in Paddlesport

- Application and interview
- CRB Disclosure

- Local References (take up at least 2 references)
- Discussion – understanding and acceptance of responsibilities
- Watch the person working
- Agreement and appointment – contract

The Criminal Records Bureau (CRB)

- What is a CRB Disclosure?
- How do I apply for a Disclosure?
- What sort of Disclosure do I need?
- What information will I be required to show and include on my Disclosure form?
- Who will receive my Disclosure?
- Can I challenge the information on my Disclosure?
- How long will my Disclosure be valid?

What is a CRB Disclosure?

A CRB Disclosure is a document that contains information held by police and government department that can be used by employers and voluntary organisations to make recruitment decisions.

A CRB Disclosure offers the BCU and all those involved in paddlesport the means to check the background of applicants to ensure that they do not have a history that would make them unsuitable for posts.

A CRB Disclosure will provide details of a person's criminal record including convictions, cautions, reprimands and warnings held on the Police National Computer. It will also contain details from lists held by the Department of Health and Department for Education and Skills.

How do I apply for a Disclosure?

The BCU is a Registered Body and therefore able to complete Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) Disclosures.

Each club has a nominated representative who is able to obtain CRB forms from the BCU, therefore either obtain a form through your nominated person or contact the BCU.

Once you have received your form follow the instructions, showing your identification to your club representative and then returning the completed form to the BCU.

What sort of Disclosure do I need?

The BCU only conducts Enhanced Disclosures. An Enhanced Disclosure includes an additional check with local Police Forces.

Local police records may contain additional information that might be relevant to the position sought.

What information will I be required to show and include on my Disclosure form?

In completing the form you are required to include:

- Your full name, and any other name that you may have been known by
- Details of addresses you have lived at
- Your date and place of birth
- Your national insurance number

- In addition you will be required to provide personal identification documents including items such as your passport and/or driving licence

The identification will be seen by your club representative and returned to you. The club representative will then acknowledge on your Disclosure form that they have seen your identification and send the form back to the BCU CRB Unit for processing.

Who will receive my Disclosure?

You (the applicant) will receive your Disclosure form in the post once the check has been completed.

The turn around time for CRB Disclosures to be returned is around is 6-8 weeks although some can be shorter as well as considerably longer.(The BCU has no control over this)

A copy of your CRB Disclosures will also be returned to the BCU Child Protection Officer or appointed person. The Club will NOT receive a copy of your Disclosure although they are advised to ask to see your completed Disclosure.

Can I challenge the information on my Disclosure?

Yes, if you think that any information on your Disclosure is incorrect please contact the CRB Dispute Line on 0870 90 90 778

You should also contact the BCU Child Protection Officer (see contacts) to inform them which aspect of your Disclosure you are disputing.

How long will my Disclosure be valid?

A Disclosure is only valid on the day that it is issued, if however you remain employed or in a permanent role with the same club, organisation then you will not need another CRB check for another 2 years. If however you move you may well be required to complete another CRB.

I declare that my child may attend Bromley Canoe Club Pool Sessions at West Wickham Swimming Baths on Monday evenings. I also declare that they are in good health and can swim 50 metres in light clothing.

I understand that the Club Pool times are 8:30 to 10:00, split in to three sessions.

8.30 - 9.00	Under 16s in boats, all welcome to swim.
9.00 - 9.30	Boats for all, all welcome to swim.
9.30 - 10.00	16s and over only in pool. All under 16s to leave the pool area.

There are no Pool Sessions on Bank Holidays.

I understand that if my child is under 16 then, unless agreed otherwise by the Committee, I must be present for the Pool Session.

Please note that my child (delete as appropriate)

- Is allergic to penicillin.
- Is allergic to plasters
- Has a food allergy
- Suffers from asthma
- Has any other medical condition

Please provide further information on any medical or allergic conditions noted above:

I undertake to ensure that Bromley Canoe Club promptly receives updated information should any of the above details change during the year.

I acknowledge that this form will be kept in a sealed envelope in the Bromley Canoe Club file at West Wickham Pool and only opened in the event of an emergency. I also acknowledge that whilst care will be taken with this information, the committee cannot be held responsible should it be misused.
